By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Ngo Dinh Can, boss of central Viet Nam in the regime of his brother, President Ngo Dinh Diem, was turned over to South Viet Nam's new revolutionary government today after he sought asylum at the U.S. consulate at Hue.

U.S. officials were understood to have received assurances from revolutionary officials that Can "would not be lynched and would receive the due process of law."

Diem and another brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, his closest adviser, were captured by the rebels Saturday. The revolutionary government said they committed suicide, but reports have been widespread in Saigon that they were assassinated.

Unconfirmed reports circulated in Hue, capital of central Viet Nam, that 180 bodies had been found in a mass grave at Can's mansion there.

Responsible Vietnamese officials said rows of filthy dungeons were found in an old French arsenal on property owned by Can just south of Hue. Mobs on Monday sacked and destroyed the home Can was building there.

Buddhist leaders, students and others in Hue long have charged that Can ruled his bailiwick as a bloody tyrant.

Can, who dropped from sight when the coup overthrew Diem's regime last weekend, reportedly went to the U.S. consulate in Hue Monday night and asked for refuge. Consular officials notified the revolutionary government.

Late that afternoon Can was flown 400 miles south to Saigon in a U.S. military plane and turned over to officials of the new government.

The military junta Monday night named former Vice President Nguyen Ngoc Tho to be premier of a new provisional government that will govern South Viet Nam under the watchful supervision of the military leaders.

Recognition by the United States and a number of other nations was expected to follow quickly the approval of the predominantly civilian government by the ruling military junta Monday night.

Bacon Promised to Each Voter

CHARLES CITY, Iowa (AP) — A half-pound of bacon has been promised each voter who casts a ballot in today's municipal election.

The project, to arouse interest in the election, was sponsored by a livestock - buying concern and a local supermarket.

Charles City has 5,620 registered voters but only 633 voted in the last city election.

Not Against School Fund Proposal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Monday that he would not oppose a suggestion by an Arkansas Education Association official that 55 per cent of state's general revenues be allocated to schools.

But Faubus said neither was he ready to accept the proposal as the thing to do. "We might be able to do better than that," he said.

The plea for more school money was made Saturday by Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the AEA, at a combined meeting of the League of Women Voters, the Arkansas Association of University Women and the Women's Emergency Committee.

Rozzell also suggested a state sales tax increase to four per cent.

Faubus said he would not favor a tax increase at this time and did not think the people would.

"As long as we can continue this rapid economic growth, I think the people are inclined to wait and see how we do before they will be ready to approve any tax increase," Faubus said.

The governor said the state had, to a great extent, met the needs of other state agencies which get their funds from general revenues and it is unlikely that their needs for increases will be as great in the future.

Faubus said he thought Rozzell had made a bad choice when he advanced his proposals at the meeting.

"I think by using this forum, Rozzell might incur some opposition he would not have had," Faubus said. "I don't mean from me, but I believe he will get this opposition because of my knowledge of the general political situation."

JFK Assistant to Quit Post

The Post said Wiesner, 48, is expected to return to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He left a position of teacher and research director there to take the White House job in 1961.

At 59, Actor Cary Grant Could Still Pass for That Matinee Idol of Years Ago

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Cary Grant has decided to learn how to cook.

"Maybe if I learn how to cook, somebody'll marry me if I play my cards wrong," he said lightly.

"I once got a Boy Scout merit badge for cooking. But about all I remember now is that you have to cook things longer at a mountain altitude."

"If a man really goes into it, he makes a better cook than a woman. Take Danny Kaye—he's fantastic. My cook is rather jealous of his ability."

As a first step in acquiring culinary skill, Grant is having a modern electric kitchen installed in his hilltop home north of Beverly Hills.

The ageless movie actor, who recently completed his 61st starring film, was in a merry mood.

The evening before had been notable. The Theater Owners of America had presented Cary with their "Star of the Year" award. Two young ladies also had followed him into the men's washroom to kiss him—an impromptu award for which he had no prepared speech or ready ad lib.

Now, the morning after, as he dressed for a luncheon date, Cary pranced around his hotel suite as gay as a college sophomore.

As he went under the shower, he sang "Mother Machree" in a

U.S. Election Contests Are Being Watched

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The hour of decision arrived today in scattered elections across the country which may give tipoffs—however uncertain—on 1964 trends.

Contests to watch were the Philadelphia mayoralty fight and governorship tussles in Kentucky and Mississippi.

In addition, hundreds of mayors and other officials were being selected, plus members of state legislatures in Kentucky, Mississippi, New Jersey and Virginia.

In Philadelphia, Democratic Mayor James H. J. Tate faced a tough challenge from a Republican opponent, James T. McDermott. Democratic campaign workers sought to tie Tate's fortunes to those of President Kennedy.

Accused Spy Is Refused All Bail

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—A federal district judge refused to set bail today for an American engineer and a Russian chauffeur held on spy charges.

Judge Thomas F. Meaney rejected bail requests in view of "the nature of the charge." The judge also took into consideration a promise of speedy presentation of the case to a federal grand jury.

U.S. Atty. David M. Satz Jr. said he will go before the grand jury Wednesday with evidence against John William Butenko, 38, of Orange, control administrator for the International Electric Corp. of Paramus, N.J., which handled secret Air Force contracts, and Igor A. Ivanov, chauffeur for a Russian trading company.

Attorneys for the two men objected and said they wanted a hearing on the bail matter, but Meaney pointed out that a hearing probably could not be held before the grand jury gets the case.

Butenko and Ivanov have been held without bail in Hudson County jail, Jersey City. FBI agents arrested them in Englewood last Tuesday night. U.S. Commissioner Theodore Kiscaras first set $100,000 bail but revoked it Wednesday.

Three men in the Soviet Union's U.N. delegation also were alleged to have taken part in the plot.

Arkansans to Polls in Some Areas

Arkansas residents go to polls throughout the state today to vote on everything from bond issues to city officials.

All officials of incorporated towns and the mayor, treasurer and half the aldermen of first class cities will be chosen in the general election.

Some of the issues around the state are:

A $350,000 bond issue at Harrison for the construction of a filtration plant and sewer and water line extensions.

A $150,000 bond issue in Clark County to help finance construction of a women's apparel manufacturing plant.

A $1,100,000 bond issue in Columbia County to help finance the expansion of one firm and to refinance an old bond issue.

An accompanying 2.2 mill tax would be levied only if the firm defaulted on rental payments.

A $160,000 bond issue at Van Buren to help finance construction of a county nursing home.

Mena residents will decide on whether to annex 40 acres of land and whether to apply for public housing for the elderly.

Fayetteville residents will vote on the proposed annexation of 20 square miles of property which would almost double the size of the city.

Hot Springs residents will vote on a Sunday closing law.

Russellville voters will decide whether to repeal or approve city ordinances for an $812,612 urban renewal project.

Incumbent mayors are opposed at Hot Springs, Forest City, Rogers, Warren, Jonesboro, Wynne, Clarksville, Paris, El Dorado, Mena, Des Arc and Fayetteville.

Negroes seeking aldermen's posts include Eddie Bolat at Crossett, Rev. Daniel M. Brown at Hot Springs and Dr. Mollette at Pine Bluff.

Mrs. Nhu to Join Family in Rome

By DORIS KLEIN

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An aide says Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, heartened by a number of sympathetic messages from Americans, is considering returning to the United States after a reunion with her three younger children in Rome.

Mrs. Nhu, originally scheduled to leave today for Rome, postponed her trip 24 hours in order to receive telephonic assurances that her children are in Rome before she leaves the United States.

More than 3,000 telegrams and messages have poured into Mrs. Nhu's hotel suite since the military coup Friday which overthrew the regime of her brother-in-law, Ngo Dinh Diem, the aide said.

Most of the messages were sympathetic, he added.

Col. William K. Eliscu of New York City, a former Secret Service officer who has accompanied Mrs. Nhu on her U.S. tour, said many of the messages mentioned her personal loss while others supported her anti-Communist stand.

Mrs. Nhu's husband, Ngo Dinh Nhu, Diem's political adviser, was killed in the coup—or committed suicide—along with his brother.

Mrs. Nhu had feared her three younger children, ages 15, 11, and 4 had been killed in the bombardment of the presidential palace.

But the new Vietnamese government, through the U.S. State Department, informed Mrs. Nhu her children were safe.

Mrs. Nhu disclosed Monday the contents of a telegram she had sent Secretary of State Dean Rusk the day before asking that she be permitted to return to Saigon to take care of her husband and her three children. As an alternative she suggested that the State Department send the children to Rome via Los Angeles.

Instead, Mrs. Nhu received a telegram from the State Department late Monday telling her the children were being flown to Rome, via Bangkok, Thailand.

Mrs. Nhu had one important guest at her suite Monday—her father.

It was the first meeting between Mrs. Nhu and Tran Van Chuong, 65, since she arrived in the United States.

The father, former Vietnamese ambassador to the U.S., and daughter had long been at odds over authoritarian policies of the Ngo Dinh ruling family.

After spending approximately 45 minutes with his daughter, Tran Van Chuong said: "There was no need of reconciliation because as soon as I learned the tragic events my heart was very near my daughter."

He declined to say who contacted whom first.

Experts to Decide on Milk Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Education Commissioner Arch Ford said today the state Board of Education will call in experts at the end of the school year to determine if the extra amount of sugar children get from chocolate milk is detrimental.

A controversy arose over the offering of chocolate milk in the schools when the state Dental Association charged that drinking the milk tends to negate anti-decay measures.

The department will study whether the extra amount of sugar consumed is offset by the extra amount of milk the children drink by being able to get chocolate milk, Ford said.

Arkansas is the 27th state to offer chocolate milk on a reimbursable basis—that is, it is paid for from state funds in the school lunch program.

Mrs. Ruth Powell, head of the school lunch program, said in September, 1962, the department reimbursed the schools $79,338 for the amount of milk sold. With chocolate milk added this September, the amount increased to $155,935.

Ford said part of the double increase was attributed to the novelty of chocolate milk with the lunch. Sales, he said, are already leveling off.

Ford said local boards have the option of offering the chocolate milk or not.

"All the State Department did," he said, "was to include chocolate milk as a reimbursable item."

The dentists contend that the acid forming action of sugars contained in chocolate milk formulas tend to negate such measures against decay as flourides in drinking water.

A resolution opposing the sale of the milk was approved Sunday by the Dental Association during its convention in Pine Bluff.

The U.S. Army, meanwhile, began assembling a supply line for the blocked American convoy.

In West Berlin, 15 trucks and water tankers were ready to roll on a 110-mile trip over the autobahn through East German territory to Marienborn. A second U.S. military convoy of 4 trucks, 2 trailers and 56 men stood on the western side of Marienborn, presumably in reserve.

The 44-man convoy was halted Monday morning. It failed in an attempt to break through early this morning when the Russians parked three armored personnel carriers pulled up behind the convoy and boxed it in. Then, as a heavy rain fell, a lone Soviet soldier sat in the open at a heavy machine gun.

Russia Continues to Hold American Convoy to Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Russian troops briefly halted a French military convoy today on its way toward a U.S. Army convoy bottled up by Soviet armored cars at Marienborn checkpoint near West Germany.

After the French convoy started up again on the 110-mile trip over the autobahn through East Germany, a Western source in Berlin said the French were under orders not to go through the Marienborn checkpoint to West Germany unless the U.S. convoy blocked there is allowed to pass.

The 10-vehicle French convoy carried 50 men. Forty-four men were in the 12-vehicle American convoy held at Marienborn by East Germany, a Western source in Berlin said the French were under orders not to go through the Marienborn checkpoint to West Germany unless the U.S. convoy blocked there is allowed to pass.

U.S. Woman Scientist Nobel Winner

STOCKHOLM (AP) — An American scientist today became the first woman to win a Nobel Prize in physics in 60 years. She will share the prize with a second U.S. scientist and a West German.

Winding up the 1963 Nobel awards, a West German scientist and one from Italy were named to share the prize in chemistry.

The Swedish Royal Academy of Science announced these winners of the physics and chemistry prizes, each worth $51,150.

Physics: Mrs. Maria Goeppert-Mayer of the University of California and J. Hans D. Jensen of Heidelberg for their work in determining the nature of the shell of the atom's nucleus. She is the first woman residing in America to win a Nobel physics prize and the first to be named since Marie Curie of France shared the prize in 1903.

Eugene Wigner of Princeton University, who helped to lay the groundwork for the present advance study of nuclear physics. Wigner will get half the prize. Mrs. Goeppert-Mayer and Jensen will divide the other half.

Chemistry: Prof. Karl Ziegler of West Germany and Prof. Giulio Natta of Italy for their work with molecules that has helped to speed the development of useful plastics.

The award money comes from a $9-million bequest by the late Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite, who directed that the interest on the bequest be distributed among those who benefit mankind.

The formal award ceremony will be held Dec. 12 in Stockholm.

Wigner, who is 61 and a native of Hungary, was educated in Budapest and Berlin. He joined the Princeton faculty in 1930 as professor of mathematical physics.

Wigner in 1958 received the Fermi Prize and in 1960 was awarded the Atoms for Peace Prize.

Mrs. Goeppert-Mayer, 57, was born in Katowitz, Germany (now Katowice, Poland). She took her doctorate at Goettingen, Germany, in 1930, and then was on the staff of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore for 10 years along with her American husband, Joseph Mayer, a professor of chemical physics.

Jensen was born in Hamburg in 1907, and went on the staff of the university there in 1937. He has been professor of theoretical physics at Heidelberg since 1949.

Mrs. Goeppert-Mayer, after a period at Columbia University in New York in World War II, joined Argonne National Laboratory, where she worked for 15 years. At the same time she served as professor at the University of Chicago. Since 1960 the two Mayers have occupied chairs at the La Jolla branch of the University of California.

Rockefeller May Declare Candidacy

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's formal declaration of candidacy for the Republican nomination will be made on Thursday, informed sources reported today.

The governor's press office maintained tight secrecy about details for the expected announcement but it was generally understood here that Thursday had been chosen.

The announcement will make Rockefeller's candidacy official, but he has been an unofficial candidate and has been traveling extensively throughout the nation in recent months.

pointing diagonally across the road.

Early this afternoon, a U.S. Army sedan drove through the barriers with supplies for the stranded convoy. The sedan was cheered by a group of West German children visiting the Iron Curtain as part of their school program.

The Americans had a hot breakfast at 6 a.m. and their morale was reported high.

In Bonn, the West German government was brought into a conference of the U.S., British and French ambassadors. Up to now, incidents involving military convoys had been considered matters concerning only the Soviet Union and the three Western Allies. In London, the British government announced its full support of the U.S. action in refusing to give in to Soviet demands for a head-counting of Army men in small convoys.

A West German government statement called the blockade a "serious provocation."

The blockade—the fourth involving Allied convoys in less than a month — caused grave concern in Washington.

Again it centered on the issue of who is to make the rules for Allied military convoy travel on the autobahn. The Russians demanded a head count of U.S. soldiers on the vehicles, and the Americans refused.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk summoned Georgi M. Kornienko, acting Soviet charge d'affaires in Washington, Monday and demanded the convoy be released. Informants said Kornienko explained he had no word from his government on the incident.

The U.S. Army's Berlin garrison postponed a training exercise scheduled to start Monday for 24 hours. The Army insisted the troops were not placed on the alert, but Army officials presumably felt it was wiser to keep the men in their barracks in readiness.

U.S. officials in Washington at first minimized the incident but later one high official said it had taken on "serious dimensions."

"Intensive consultations" between the United States, Britain and France were reported. The official said that the longer the blockade lasts, the graver the danger of a serious confrontation becomes.

The convoy was stopped at 8:01 a.m. Monday after the Soviet officer in charge of the checkpoint, a Lt. Col. Spiridinov, demanded that 15 passengers in three of the trucks dismount and be counted.

The convoy commander, Lt. John Lamb of North Augusta, N.C., refused, in accordance with an Allied statement sent to the Russians Oct. 29 regarding procedures Allied convoys will follow when traveling to and from Berlin.

The Allies reportedly told the Russians then that if more than 30 troop passengers were carried, they would dismount to facilitate processing by Soviet officers. Lamb said only 20 of the 44 troops were passengers.

The Allies in their Oct. 29 statement also made clear they were relinquishing none of their rights to unrestricted access to and from Berlin. But Spiridinov told Lamb that only Soviet au-

Minh, who assumed the position of chief of state, said his committee of generals will give his chief attention to direction of the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Until revision of the 1956 constitution, Minh said, legislative and executive power will center in the junta but will be exercised by the provisional government. He explained that the junta will retain active authority over national defense, security and finances.

Thao, 55, was vice president in the Diem regime. A Buddhist, he tried to conciliate the dispute between his coreligionists and Roman Catholic President Diem but his efforts were frustrated by Diem's tough brother and chief adviser, Ngo Dinh Nhu.

In Washington, in a speech to the House of Representatives, Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., said the rebels must have received encouragement from the United States.

Zablocki, head of a Foreign Affairs subcommittee that visited South Viet Nam before the coup, called the deaths of Diem and Nhu repulsive assassinations.

Zablocki said if U.S. officials knew of the revolt and "failed to bring pressure to insure safe conduct out of the country for Diem, then the shadow of blame falls" on the United States.

Authorities have the right to determine processing procedures for convoys.

lin is viewed here today with more concern as each hour passes. U.S. officials expressed fear it could grow into a serious confrontation.

Earlier, officials stressed that the incident was not causing too much concern.

The convoy, delayed since Monday at the autobahn checkpoint, tried at midnight to break through to West Berlin but was cut off by five Soviet armored personnel carriers and sedans.

The situation has taken "serious dimensions" said a high ranking official in Washington, and he revealed that "intensive consultations" were under way between the United States, Great Britain and France.

When two American convoys were suddenly stopped by the Russians last month — jarring the cold war truce that followed negotiation of the limited nuclear test ban treaty—many U.S. officials blamed the incidents on a "local misunderstanding."

Then and now, the question was over Russian demands that the troops in the convoy dismount and be counted before passing through the checkpoint on the autobahn which links Berlin with West Germany.

So there would be no future misunderstandings, the United States spelled out for Moscow its policy on the matter, administration officials said.

Washington informed the Kremlin that if a convoy carried more than 30 passengers—excluding drivers and co-drivers—it would allow the passengers to be counted—but not if there were fewer than 30 passengers.

This, the Western Powers told Russia, had been the practice since the Soviets began taking head counts in 1961.

The Russian reaction was slow in coming but it came Monday when a Soviet officer at the checkpoint warned that the Russians, not the Western Allies, will write the rules for the autobahn.

This remark, more than the incident itself, induced Secretary of State Dean Rusk to summon Georgi M. Kornienko, acting head of the Soviet Embassy, Monday morning, officials said.

The secretary was understood to have told the Russian that he interprets the incident on the autobahn and the Soviet officer's remark as proof of a Soviet attempt to change processing practices which existed over a period of years.

Kornienko, informants said, replied he had no word from his government on the incident.

Chism Reed, Hog Booster, Dies

PARIS, Ark. (AP) — Former state Sen. Benjamin Chism Reed, 68, of Paris, the president of the Arkansas Razorback Club, died Sunday at Tucson, Ariz.

Reed, a long-time resident of Paris, had been in ill health for some time and went to Arizona several months ago.

Reed served one term in the Senate in 1952-54. He was instrumental in the organization of the Razorback club in 1939 and served as its president from its inception.

—"The Democratic lever on the voting machines is the Kennedy lever," they said.

Racial unrest in the big "City of Brotherly Love" was intertwined with the campaign, though both candidates proclaimed themselves liberals on civil rights.

In Kentucky there were many issues, including which gubernatorial candidate could best promote prosperity — Democrat Edward T. Breathitt Jr., or Republican Louie B. Nunn. Breathitt was favored to win in a state where Democrats have held the governorship for 20 years—but the size of his margin was a question.

An order by retiring Gov. Bert Combs, barring racial discrimination in businesses licensed by the state, figured in the campaign. While stressing he was not attacking integration, Nunn called the order a dictatorial move to catch votes. Breathitt said he would leave the subject to the next legislature, the order being now inoperative because of litigation.

The only question on civil rights between the major gubernatorial candidates in Mississippi was which man was more strongly segregationist and more vehemently anti-Kennedy. Both men—Democratic Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. and Republican Rubel Phillips, Jackson lawyer—claimed to fit that description best.

Interest was attracted to Mississippi because the Republicans this year mounted their first serious drive for the governorship since Reconstruction days. A big vote for them would cheer them in their effort to build a two-party system throughout Dixie.

Johnson was expected to win, but some analysts figured his Republican opponent might get as many as 120,000 votes out of perhaps 250,000 cast.

Casting ballots in Negro churches and clubs, Mississippi Negroes were conducting a strictly nonofficial gubernatorial "election" for Aaron Henry, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. They felt this would be effective as a protest.

Henry's backers also have been running a write-in campaign, but only a minority of Negroes are qualified to vote, and anyway state officials say write-in ballots cannot be counted.

Vandalism Cause Deaths of 11 Persons

NEW YORK (AP)—An automobile jammed with 12 adults and children went past warning lights blacked out by vandals and plunged into the Harlem River in the early morning dark Sunday. Only one person survived.

The 11 deaths all but wiped out three Brooklyn families. Those in the car had just left a christening party.

The 11 deaths equaled the state record for a single accident.

Police said vandals had ripped bulbs and wiring from blinking red lights at the end of Lincoln Avenue, the Bronx, where the car went into the river. Only a foot-high timber railing separates the road's end from the water.

The lone survivor, I. Martin ez, 40, whose wife and two children died apparently was thrown from the car as it somersaulted into the 40-foot-deep river. He swam to shore and made his way to a bar, from which police were called.

Among the dead were four children, aged one, three, four and nine.

The christening party was at the Bronx home of Rabin-dratt Berrios, a barber, who said one man refused to get into the car because it was so crowded. "I begged them—there were too many people—to go in a second car I could get for them," he said. "They insisted they could manage it."

Police said the Harlem River warning lights apparently had been ripped out of the 10-foot-high stanchion some time ago. They said they had received no complaint that the lights were out.

YOUR WEEKLY WASHINGTON REPORT

HOPE, ARKANSAS REJECTS FEDERAL AID

Hope, Arkansas, a city of 8,399, enthusiastically turned down $250,000 in federal aid for a $650,000 paving improvement project. The city's daily newspaper, the Hope Star, reported that City Manager Medders and the City Engineer, John E. Hawkins, presented the proposal to an audience of 500 which filled the city hall auditorium.

City officials said it was up to the citizens to say whether they wanted the program or not.

The Star reported that the mass meeting greeted it with complete hostility — practically all of the speakers who were hostile were greeted by applause and by the end, the crowd left the hall ignoring the petitions which had been left at the auditorium door for possible signers.

Hope, Ark., used to be the watermelon center of the United States, but its economy has faltered in recent years. It has been classified by the Area Redevelopment Administration as a depressed area eligible for federal aid for street paving — and almost anything else ARA will approve. However, the citizens wanted nothing to do with the federal aid project.

One of the speakers said: "We used to have a pay-as-you-go plan for paving. On a pay-as-you-go plan we might have the entire city paved in 8 or 9 years."

Speaking in favor of the measure were the mayor, the city attorney and the city engineer. Their proposal was vehemently rejected.

Above is the clipping from the Human Events, which is mailed all over the United States. It might help our town to get a few more industries, whether it be a large one or a small one, whether it be unionized or not. There is much greater need for such things in Hope like industries. There is NO need for a new Post Office.

Sincerely, G. D. Royston, Jr.

INTRODUCING THE DEPENDABLES FOR '64

We have designs to get you in our power

Our engineers are a wily group of guys who spend most of their time dreaming up ways to win your approval. Take the Dodge Polara 500. You'd be hard-pressed to find a car that's got more going for you. Deeply-padded, contour-formed bucket seats. All-vinyl upholstery. Silt-to-silt carpeting. Padded dash. Center console. And lots of other trimmings. But that's only the half of it.

Perhaps our approach to power will further illustrate the point.

Hays to Make Series of Church Talks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Brooks Hays has taken a leave of absence from his job as assistant to President Kennedy to make a series of speeches at Methodist colleges around the nation.

Hays, a former Arkansas congressman, has been on a speaking tour for a month but the leave had not been formally announced.

Hays reportedly asked that he be allowed to resign his White House post but President Kennedy is reported to have asked him to take a leave of absence.

The subject of his lectures is "Application of Christian Principles Through Contemporary Political and Social Conflicts."

Hays said he was maintaining his office in the White House and would be on leave without pay until mid-December. The lecture tour is sponsored by the Methodist Board of Higher Education.

He will be national chairman of Brotherhood Week, Feb. 16-

23, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Hays was president of the Southern Baptist Convention from 1957 to 1959.

Bachelors Warned of New Styles

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It is only sporting to warn America's 19 million bachelors that designer Bill Blass has reinstated sex appeal in women's fashions in time for leap year.

The provocative woman was the star of Blass' spring collection previewed by international socialites and fashion reporters Monday.

She is a far cry from the past season's lady of style, who has been wearing bowlers, boots, knee socks, turtle-necks and vests.

For example, there are flounces of black Chantilly lace over flesh pink, which look more like boudoir costumes than date dresses.

It would be impossible not to attract attention with vivid pastel linen jacket costumes, other bright hues as linings and still others as blouses.

Also good for stares are polka dots, especially bold yellow ones on navy silk sleeveless princess coats and turbans.

Other eye-catcher weapons are the floral prints, soft and

Baptists to Select New President

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An Arkansas Baptist Convention nominating committee will name today a possible successor to Dr. C. Z. Holland, who is completing his second term as convention president.

Nearly 2,500 Baptists from throughout the state met at Little Rock Monday for the 110th annual session of the convention. An additional 1,000 official representatives are expected to attend.

Dr. S. W. Eubanks of Southern Baptist College at Walnut

wispy on tailored organza jacket costumes. As the show moved along, floor length dinner gowns with tantalizing slashes up the side and ball gowns with yards of fabric in the skirts relied on still bigger and bolder prints.

Mannikins undulated in silks and linen dresses biast-cut to slither across the figure. Sexy sheaths, belted at the middle exploded into curves elsewhere.

And the date-bait collection was fussy and feminine with ruffles on necklines, hemlines, cuffs, and all the way down the middle of dresses and blouses.

Ridge is chairman of the nominating committee. New officers will be chosen today.

Holland opened the convention with an address at the first general session Monday night.

He urged Baptists to "speak with boldness and courage on the great issues of our day."

"We need to come to grips with the moral issues that face us," he said.

Holland said it is not becoming to the American people to drag their feet when liberty and light is denied any people anywhere, "particularly in our own communities, state, Southland or nation."

Holland reviewed the progress that Baptists had made during the year in education, at the Arkansas Baptist Hospital the Baptist Children's home and in its camping program.

Scheduled to address the convention today were Rev. Lloyd L. Hunnicutt, pastor of the Central Baptist Church at Magnolia; Rev. Douglas Huggins, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Jackson, Miss. and Rev. Perry F. Webb, an evangelist and lecturer at Little Rock.

Dr. K. Owen White, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, will address the convention Wednesday morning.

John F. Havlik, secretary of evangelists for the Louisiana Baptist convention will speak at the closing session Wednesday night.

GREAT DAY

FOR GETTING THINGS DONE BY PHONE

So maybe the rain is coming down in sheets.

Lightning flashing.

Thunder booming.

No matter how wretched the weather, you can keep right on using your telephone.

Some years ago, bad weather might have affected your telephone service.

Today, things are different.

Most telephone cables are now filled with pressurized dry air. If a cable springs a leak, the force of the escaping dry air holds out moisture and keeps phones working. An alarm automatically tells repairmen the location of the break. Usually, the trouble is fixed and you never know anything was wrong.

So go ahead and use your phone when the sky opens up and the rain comes down. Pressurizing telephone cables to give you stormproof dependability is another improvement made with you in mind. Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

HE'S A BIG BOY NOW!

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My father is an officer in the Air Force and he and my mother divorced. I went into the Army at 16. Because I lack a college degree, Father thinks I'm a failure. He wants me to go to Officers Candidate School and make a career in the Army. Instead, once out of the Service, I intend working for an electronics firm, but just haven't the heart to tell him.

You see, I'm in love. My girl and I have known each other eight months. She is 18, I am 18. We will announce our engagement at Christmas and are making plans for the wedding. Though really loving one another, we aren't kidding ourselves about everything being a bed of roses. Dad thinks I should wait until I'm a second lieutenant before talking marriage. I now earn $250 a month and when I am a civilian will be in the $500 per month class. Help me explain to Dad that I am no longer a child. —Grown-up

Dear Grown-Up: If you are old enough to be a soldier and to think of marrying, you are old enough to stand on your own feet. Forget about the difference in rank between you and father. Just because you may be an N.C.O. and he is an officer in the Air Force doesn't necessarily mean that he has all the answers. Nor does it mean that you have all the answers. But don't let him or anybody else say you are a failure because you lack a college degree.

It's hard for me to believe that you are eligible for any kind of a job paying $500 a month without having graduated from high school.

The most forceful example of your maturity would be to land this job, successfully fill it for six months, then consider matrimony. If your girl really loves you she will certainly be willing to wait. Your decision to leave the Army must be your own, based on a realistic and reasonable appraisal of all the pros and cons. Such a decision, rationally executed, more than anything else, will convince your father that you're grown-up. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my letter, "Hasty Marriage."

Dear Helen: What could we give the nurses and nurses' aides of the hospital where a member of our family recently spend two weeks? Candy was previously presented. —Grateful

Dear Grateful: Send cologne, bath powder, or some fine toilet soap, preferably purchased from a shop where an exchange could be made. Nurses in some hospitals have comfort funds to which you might contribute.

Dear Helen: I'm a 16-year-old dateless girl! I've tried wearing tight skirts and giggling; wearing full skirts and walking demure. I've cut my hair and let it grow; worn make-up and gone without. I did a right-about face on personality. First I went around with a chip on my shoulder, then was friendly with everyone.

Three out of 10 boys say "Hello" back. The others look at me as if I am crazy. But being friendly made a change in me and though still without a boyfriend I feel more human. While not aspiring to be homecoming queen, I would like a date once in awhile. Help! —Dateless Girl

Dear Dateless: You're putting the cart before the horse, the horse being you, and dating being the cart. The latter should follow the former. If disposition, grooming, and direction are right. Direction in your case should mean living up to your greatest potential in terms of character, personality, appearance and school work.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Erhard Supports Atlantic Alliance

BONN, Germany (AP) - Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, expressing West Germany's wholehearted support of the Atlantic Alliance, is going to try to convince France to take a similar stance.

Erhard said Sunday he would confer with President Charles de Gaulle in Paris Nov. 21-22.

Sees Need for More School Cash

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, said Saturday that an increase of $10 per school year for each of the next ten years is desperately needed for the state's educational program.

He also said raising state school teachers' salaries to the national average and providing services for children on par with the national average would require $57.5 million more than is now spent each year.

The $30-per-child-per-year figure would amount to about $12 million, Rozzell said, and this is the minimum amount necessary to provide a good educational program.

The $12 million increase should come through public policy and methods of implementing it which would result in an annual increase of funds from local, state and federal sources, Rozzell said.

"In 1963 the people of Arkansas were devoting four per cent more of their personal income to the support of the public schools than the nation as a whole," Rozzell said, "but by last year that figure had dropped four per cent, to equal the national level - and on far less income."

One reason the state expenditure for education is below the national average, Rozzell said, is because schools are "short-changed" in the distribution of state tax revenues. He said that in the last fiscal year tax collections exceeded allocations by $6.1 million and the schools "received not one dime of this."

Warns Not to Expect Soviet Change

By JOSEPH E. DYMAN PARIS (AP) - NATO Secretary-General Dirk U. Stikker warned today against hopes that Russia's quarrel with Communist China will eventually lead to Soviet alignment with the West.

Addressing NATO's ninth annual parliamentary conference, Stikker told the alliance Moscow and Peking still aim at spreading communism throughout the world, although "communism now speaks with two voices."

However, the former Dutch foreign minister said the rift between the two Communist powers seems likely to continue. He said it is "much more than ideological." China regards Russia as "almost a Western and white nation which is refusing to help China at the sacrifice of its own growth," he said.

Stikker also said nationalism is threatening the Western Alliance in a similar way. With France apparently in mind, Stikker said some NATO members "hold firmly to the line that they must retain full national control of their armed forces, and that integration beyond a limited degree is not compatible with the exercise of the responsibilities of sovereign governments."

Atlantic partnership and European union are complementary, not competitive ideas, he said.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, NATO's supreme commander in Europe, told the conferees they must maintain NATO forces at full strength to expand the chances of peace.

The American general said the limited nuclear test-ban agreement has not reduced the urgent need for NATO defense.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon

By Adeline McElfresh

(Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1960 Adeline McElfresh)

THE STORY: Dr. Ann Kenyon has made an enemy of Dr. Emerson Lyle, chief surgeon of Leddie Memorial Hospital, by disagreeing with his diagnosis of the cause of the death of a baby.

VIII

Although Ann was not expecting him, Brill came that weekend, while the town was still buzzing with talk about Laura Byron's baby. Brill, one of those seemingly rare persons who is a native New Yorker, found it appalling that practically everyone in Leddie knew practically everything that went on in the hospital and didn't hesitate to talk about it, even to a complete stranger.

"We hadn't cleared that postage-stamp airport before the taxi driver was telling me all about it. The pass word must have been 'hospital.' If I'd asked him to drive me to the bank he probably would have told me who was overdrawn."

Ann didn't smile. "It's a small town, Brill."

Distaste for what he had heard still was etching tiny lines on his high, wide forehead. "To hear that driver tell it, you'd think this Dr. Lyle is a three-headed orge and you an angel."

"Not with the thoughts I've been having."

Ann protested quickly. "Goodness, no. He did a superb job on me."

"You chose a strange way to repay him."

Ann shut off her low cry, but not quite in time. Even Ellen Gordon, at the other end of the sun-porch, had heard and Ann warned herself the result would be more gossip: Dr. Kenyon quarreled with her "boy friend" - and about Dr. Lyle too! In a lower, controlled tone she said,

"The decision to integrate the university, which has an enrollment of approximately 7,000 students on its campuses at Waco, Dallas and Houston, came last Friday. The board of directors voted to approve the majority report of a committee named a year ago to study the situation."

Hilton E. Howell, chairman of the board, said: "While the final vote of the board adopting the new policy was not unanimous, the decision was reached by amicable discussion and democratic procedure."

Abner McCall, president of Baylor, said university officials have been instructed to put the integration policy into effect immediately.

Race on for 2nd Place in District 4-AA

Its official now—the Hope Bobcats are the Div. 4AA football champions for the 1963 season, and they completed their league schedule with a perfect 6-0 mark. They wrapped up the title with a 20-6 win over Camden and gave Coach Ben Burton a title team in his first year at Hope.

In the scramble for second place the Snackover Buckaroos came from behind to down Crossett 13-7 and hold that spot just ahead of Magnolia's Panthers who surprised more than just Fairview with a convincing 35-6 win over the Cardinals. In other action Malvern downed Sheridan in a non-league game 13-7.

Action this week is light. It starts Thursday night with Fairview at Hall Hi in non-loop competition. Friday night finds Malvern at Benton; Hope host to Gurdon; and Magnolia host to Nashville also in non-league action. Camden, Crossett, and Snackover are open.

Several changes were made in the individual scoring race. Mac McLarty, Hope's versatile quarterback, took over the scoring honors with 48 points, replacing Ted Roberts of Snackover who fell to No. 3 with 44 points. Magnolia's Tommy Carroll moved into the No. 2 spot with 46 points. Tommy Taylor of Snackover is fourth with 42.

The standings: (League games only)

Team	W	L
Hope Bobcats	6	0
Snackover Bucks	3	1
Magnolia Panthers	3	2
Malvern Leopards	2	2
Fairview Cardinals	1	3
Crossett Eagles	1	4
Camden Panthers	1	4

Chargers Piling Up Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — Sid Gillman's San Diego Chargers piled up their total offense lead in the American Football League over the weekend by rolling up 523 yards in their 53-7 romp over the New York Jets.

Tobin Rote accounted for 369 yards with his passes and Paul Lowe, Keith Lincoln and Co. added the rest. As a result of this outburst the Chargers have an impressive average of 392.2 yards per game for their first eight games.

Only the Buffalo Bills are within shouting distance of San Diego and they're not too close. Buffalo has averaged 363.2 yards. Houston in third place averaged 315.2 yards.

Buffalo displaced Houston as the passing leader with a 238.8-yard average and San Diego remained on top in the rushing department with 160.3 yards per game.

The Boston Patriots who showed plenty of offense in slugging Houston 45-3, also helped their defensive record. The Pats have yielded an average of 244.7 yards per game, almost 50 yards less than second-place Oakland.

Porkers to Get Scouting Reports

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles gives a scouting report today on Saturday's opponent, the Owls from Rice, and says he will try to impress on the Razorbacks "how good a football team Rice is."

The Razorbacks meet the Owls in an afternoon game at Houston.

A fear that Arkansas' defense might have been seriously hurt was dismissed Monday when linebacker Gary Howard, who twisted his ankle against Texas A&M, ran well in practice.

The Razorbacks have been short on linebackers since Tommy Brasher and Dave Walston were put out of action with injuries and the loss of Howard could have made things really

Globetrotters Put on Show in London

By GEOFFREY MILLER
LONDON (AP) — The Harlem Globetrotters, plied with champagne by Prince Philip, clowning their way to defeat in a mock basketball game Monday night against a team of British stage comics and television personalities.

Queen Elizabeth's husband was 12th man (Reserve) for the Lord's Taverners, a sports and social club which raises money for charities.

At half-time, with the Globetrotters leading 20-0, the Prince walked on to the floor in a wine waiter's jacket, wheeling a refreshment trolley.

He handed a silver cup of champagne to each of the Globetrotters. Then he produced an old teapot and poured out cups of tea for the Englishmen.

The Globetrotters flew from the United States specially to give their services without fee for the event, staged during a ball in aid of the British National Playing Fields Association. Some 2,000 watched the game between dancing.

The Taverners had announced in advance that they would win the game, whatever methods were necessary. In the second half the Globetrotters good-naturedly let them get on with it.

Every time a Globetrotter took a shot, someone pulled a string and jerked the basket out of the way.

The Taverners' captain, comedian Richard Hearn, shined up the supporting pole of the basket at the other end and popped half a dozen balls into the basket one after another as his teammates handed them up.

The Taverners were declared official winners 26-24.

Liston, Clay to Meet and Sign Pact

By FRAN KITMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DENVER (AP) — Loud-mouthed Cassius Clay and silent Sonny Liston, the champ, confront each other in a hotel room today to sign a contract for their long-rumored world's heavyweight championship fight.

Most guessers predicted the two Negroes will fight 15 rounds in Los Angeles next February. The details will be announced at the contract signing scheduled for 4 p.m. EST.

Talkative Cassius blew into town Monday night in his private bus festooned with signs proclaiming: "I'm the greatest" and "Cassius Clay, next heavyweight champion."

The Louisville, Ky., lip spouted his customary kind words for Liston. "He's too ugly to be world's champion," Clay told reporters. "I'm pretty as a girl."

Liston, dressed like a dude from London's Bond Street, turned up at the Denver airport to meet former champion Joe Louis and his wife, Martha, who planned in from California. Mrs. Louis is a lawyer for Liston, who makes his home in Denver.

"I came along just for a free ride," Louis said.

Liston, resplendent in an executive-style gray suit, smart black hat and gold-handled swagger stick, was accompanied by his wife Geraldine.

Louis predicted Clay would last longer against Liston's sledge hammer fists than Floyd Patterson who lost the title to Liston in the first round at Chicago and absorbed another first round knockout in the rematch at Las Vegas, Nev., last July 22. Liston's record is 35 victories, one loss, no draws and 25 knockouts.

Clay has a better defensive style and moves better," Louis said. "I don't think he can beat Sonny, but any time two big men meet in the ring anything can happen."

Liston, in a rare mood at the airport, joked with reporters about Clay and said he was prepared. No other injuries were reported on the A&M game. Quarterback Jon Brittenum, hurt in the Tulsa game, still has not fully recovered from his side injury. Broyles said.

Texas Remains at Top of National Poll

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Unbeaten, untied Texas is maintaining its tight grip as the nation's No. 1 college football team despite fears by Coach Darrell Royal that the Longhorns may be battling "a complex about those zeroes in the second half."

Texas again drew an overwhelming vote Monday for the top spot in The Associated Press weekly poll, but Royal appeared apprehensive as he spoke in Austin, Tex., about Saturday's game against Baylor, tied with the Longhorns for the Southwest Conference lead.

As for the complex Royal mentioned, it's the fact that Texas has failed to score in the second half in their last three games—won by a total of only 13 points.

Despite the squeakers, Texas gained 45 of the 53 first-place votes of a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters for 392 points. Illinois was second with 425 points. The Longhorns defeated SMU 17-12 last Saturday while the Illini crushed Purdue 41-21.

The only major change in the Top Ten was Michigan State's arrival on the scene in the No. 8 spot after a 30-13 wallop of Wisconsin. The Badgers, who had been ranked eighth, dropped from the list.

Mississippi held third, with Navy fourth and Auburn, the only other unbeaten, untied team on the list, in fifth place. Oklahoma was sixth followed by Alabama, Pittsburgh, Michigan State and Ohio State.

With the exception of idle Alabama, all will be in action Saturday and Royal figures his top-ranked Longhorns face a stiff test in Baylor, led by a top passing combination in quarterback Don Trull and flanker Larry Elkins.

The top ten teams with first-place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

	Pts.
1. Texas (45)	502
2. Illinois (4)	425
3. Mississippi (1)	343
4. Navy (1)	322
5. Auburn (2)	310
6. Oklahoma	209
7. Alabama	158
8. Pittsburgh	115
9. Michigan State	109
10. Ohio State	98

Craig Happy to Be Traded to Good Club

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "I have good news for you. You've been traded."

Those were the first words Roger Craig heard after Johnny Murphy, the long distance caller from New York, had been assured by the telephone operator he had reached his party.

"I know you will like the club you're going to," said Murphy, who serves as assistant to George Weiss, the New York Mets president and general manager.

The first clubs that came to my mind were the Dodgers, Cardinals, Giants and Yankees," Craig recalled as he told how he first learned of Monday's trade which sent him to the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for outfielder George Altman and Bill Wakefield, a minor league pitcher.

"I knew I'd be traded," the veteran pitcher said when contacted by telephone at his home in Lakewood, Calif. "I was praying it wouldn't be to another second division club. I felt I suffered enough."

The two seasons he spent with the Mets must have been the most frustrating of Roger's life. He pitched well enough in each of those years to have been a 20-game winner with a contending club. But with the cellar-mired Mets, he was a 20-game loser both years. His combined 15-46 record was misleading. Nine of his 24 defeats last season were by shutouts, four by scores of 1-0.

This deal should help me mentally as well as physically," said Craig, who will be 33 in March. "The Cards have been the toughest team in the league

Baylor Coach Thinks Texas Is the Best

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Coach John Bridgers of Baylor thinks Texas is his opponent this week, richly deserves its No. 1 national ranking and one of the big reasons is a great defense.

Coach Darrell Royal of Texas doesn't quite agree with that analysis. He thinks the Longhorns are going to have to do some scoring in the last half if they expect to hold their rating.

Also, Royal didn't think his team's defense was quite so hot Saturday when Southern Methodist threatened repeatedly in the last half while Texas couldn't get an offense moving.

"I just don't know if we lack the killer instinct or what, but by not scoring in the second half we've had to sweat some ball games we thought we had wrapped up," said Royal.

Besides, he added, he knew for sure that Texas would have to do some scoring in the last half to win against Baylor.

Bridgers is trying to balance his attack so he won't have to depend on passing so much since he said Texas always gave Baylor the toughest pass rush.

Royal said he just hoped he could hold Baylor to 200 yards passing.

And so the jockeying went on as Baylor and Texas prepared for the big Southwest Conference showdown when the two undefeated teams clash at Austin Saturday.

Elsewhere in the conference, the chief talk was over injuries. Arkansas, which meets Rice at Houston Saturday, felt better about it when it learned that linebacker Gary Howard, who got a twisted ankle in the Texas A&M game, would be all right.

It sure was a break—had Arkansas lost Howard it would be plumb out of linebackers.

Rice was worried because it feared end John Sylvester might not be available. He broke two fingers in the game with Texas Tech last week.

Southern Methodist was cheered by the news that quarterback Danny Thomas, who got an injured hand in the Texas game, would be able to play Saturday when the Methodists go to College Station to meet Texas A&M.

Texas A&M also was pepped up with the return to fulltime duty of quarterback and punter Jim Keller. The Aggies got no injuries in the Arkansas game.

Texas Tech prepared for an interconference game with Kansas State, loser of six of its seven games thus far. Jim Ellis was promoted to No. 1 quarterback for what he did in the game with Rice, and there were no injuries.

Texas Christian goes to Baton Rouge to play Louisiana State and Coach Abe Martin moved to strengthen his team's pass-receiving, indicating he would like to throw some against the

for me to beat."

Altman, a 30-year-old south-paw swinger, batted only .274 with nine home runs at St. Louis last season. The Cards had expected a great deal more from him after acquiring him from the Chicago Cubs last winter.

Craig was in 46 games last season, starting 36 and completing 14.

"I fell I've never pitched better than last year despite my record," said Craig. "I had better control, better stuff and my arm didn't bother me despite all the work."

"I have no bad feeling toward the Mets. They treated me fine and the fans were wonderful. Those two years with the Mets could be a blessing. I learned to cope with adversity. I think my stay in New York made me a better pitcher because it taught me to bear down harder. There was plenty of opportunity."

Gold Upset Blues in Grade Play

Saturday morning at K-Park, as one Blue player put it, the unbelievable happened. The Golds beat the Blues 19 to 13. At the beginning of the 1963 season, this did seem somewhat unbelievable. The Blues were coming back strong with 7 starters returning and the Golds were a brand new team, with no experienced players. And the Blue team has lived up to its reputation all season, with precision blocking, slick ball handling and a tough defense and only an early season tie with the Reds to mark on otherwise perfect season record, until Saturday. This is certainly no reflection on the Blue team, because the Blues are a well balanced, well coached team of youngsters that just let down a little in the final stretch. The game does certainly reflect on the fine job that our teen-age coaches have done this year in bringing along these grade school players into a well organized group of hustlers. These boys have made our league into one where no team can let down, because anybody can beat anybody else on a given day.

In the second game, the Whites and Reds battled to a 7-7 tie in a fight for the second spot in the standings. The Whites had to win it for second place, so the Reds wound up with the honors, but not until they'd had the pants scared off of them several times in the game.

1963 has been the best Grade School Football season that anyone could ask for and the credit goes to the players and young coaches. Our league was very well balanced, especially near the end of the season, our teams were well disciplined and well coached, our equipment was better, thanks to public response, and player drop outs were almost nil. This had to be because of good leadership and should certainly call attention to the high type of young men that we have in our community.

These young athletes gave the majority of their free time to coaching their younger counterparts and each coach said that Tigers. He brought Larry Thomas as up to the first team in place of Jim Fauver, who dropped some passes against Baylor.

Asked about today's fiber glass poles, Norris said: "I don't think it's a pole vault any more. It's a spring vault. The pictures of today's vaulters show it's an entirely different event."

Norris said his best effort at pole vaulting was 12 feet, 9 3/4 inches. At the time, in 1907, it would have been a world mark. However, it was set in a Chicago Park meet which was not recognized by the Amateur Athletic Union.

"I wasn't upset," he said. "I expected to do better than this."

Norris, born in Boston, is now retired. Always interested in agriculture, he dropped into Terry in 1909 to visit a friend and remained to homestead.

Recalls Pole Vault Record He Held

By DAVID C. BREEDER
TERRY, Mont. (AP) — Ralph Norris has a vivid memory of a spring day 57 years ago when he held the world pole vault record—for eight minutes.

Norris, 80, was on the University of Illinois track team and was vaulting with an 11-pound pole he whittled himself.

"I still have the pole, but I don't use it anymore," he said. "Poles in those days were tough but heavy. I whittled mine out of second-growth ash."

The pole vault mark he set, and held so briefly, was 11 feet, 4 3/4 inches. It was exceeded in the same track meet by an Illini teammate, Sidney Greer, with a vault of 11 feet, seven inches.

"I just barely missed at that height," Norris recalled. "When Greer cleared the bar, it bounced way up and way down—but it stayed on." Norris said the record was broken again a year later in 1907 by Leroy Samse of Indiana with a vault of 12 feet, 4 inches.

Asked about today's fiber glass poles, Norris said: "I don't think it's a pole vault any more. It's a spring vault. The pictures of today's vaulters show it's an entirely different event."
